

Direct Anterior Approach total Hip Arthroplasty Cadaveric Workshop

Wednesday, 12 October 2016

The Academia, Singapore General Hospital

Workshop Director

Pang Hee Nee

Consultant, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
Singapore General Hospital, Singapore

International Faculty

Corten Kristoff

Director, Institute for Orthopaedic Research and Training
KU Leuven, Belgium

Program

07:30	Registration
08:00	Welcome and Introduction
08:05	Preoperative Preparation <ul style="list-style-type: none">• patient selection• planning and templating• preparation and draping
08:30	The Anterior Incision <ul style="list-style-type: none">• location• soft tissue exposure and correct interval• capsular exposure
09:00	Optimizing Femoral Exposure <ul style="list-style-type: none">• soft tissue release• elevating the femur• checklist for optimizing femoral exposure
09:30	Neck Cut and Head Removal <ul style="list-style-type: none">• anterior labrum and osteophyte removal• dislocation vs in situ cut• neck cut / proper femoral orientation
10:00 – 10:30	Coffee Break
10:30	Acetabular Implantation Using the Pinnacle Cup System <ul style="list-style-type: none">• acetabular retractor placement and reaming• acetabular landmarks and implant orientation
11.00am	Femoral Implantation Using Corail® Hip System <ul style="list-style-type: none">• anterior broaching – how it differs from other approaches• steps for trial reduction• using X-Ray to verify leg length and offset• final implantation
11:30	Lunch / Change for laboratory
12:30	Cadaveric Hands-on Workshop
17:00	Course Evaluation / Closing Comments